High Holy Days Workshop: Orientation to the High Holy Days

Monday, August 30, 2010 7:00 pm

As fall approaches, Jews throughout the world begin to prepare for a unique ten-day period of prayer, self-examination, fasting and repentance. It is time for the High Holy Days: Rosh Hashanah (New Year) and Yom Kippur (Day of Atonement).

Join us for an adult discussion at Temple Adat Shalom led by Rabbi Castiglione. We will discuss the High Holy days, how to prepare for them, and explore ways to find meaning in the services and rituals of Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur.

This program is designed for:

- Families of different faith traditions,
- Jews by Choice,
- Those considering joining the Jewish people, and
- Anyone, members or non-members, with a desire to gain a better understanding of these Holy Days.

This free, approximately 1-hour discussion is meant to be informal and interactive. Bring your questions! Bring a friend. Temple membership is NOT required. Dessert and coffee will be served.

*Please RSVP by August 26 to Sherry Wilkins, Outreach Committee Chair, at 858-748-9267 or outreach@adatshalom.com.
