

Shabbaton

For all* INTRODUCTION TO JUDAISM students . . .

Students from URJ INTRO courses at Temple Adat Shalom
& elsewhere in San Diego

Saturday, January 12th, 2008; 5 Shevat, 5768

10 am to 4 pm

At Temple Adat Shalom

15905 Pomerado Road, Poway, CA 92064

Attendance at one Shabbaton is required for every student of the Union for Reform Judaism INTRODUCTION TO JUDAISM course. The word Shabbaton is related to the word Shabbat (the Hebrew word for Sabbath or day of rest). During this Shabbaton for INTRO students, you can expect to enjoy yourself experiencing prayer, study, Jewish songs, debate and discussion with rabbis and fellow students. You will meet students from other course locations.

Dress for Shabbat, but comfortably. Potluck lunch. Please bring food for lunch for four people; but no meat please, fish is OK. We'll provide beverage. There is no charge for students enrolled in any Union for Reform Judaism INTRODUCTION TO JUDAISM course at any location in Southern California. We'll start on time and finish on time.

For more information about the program,

- Call Rabbi Suzanne Singer, the INTRO Director, at: 818/ 907-8740 or toll-free 888/ 834-8242
- Talk with your INTRO Instructor

Save the information on this flyer!
