YOUNG ARTISTS' CONCERT

Sunday afternoon, May 23, 2010

The Temple Adat Shalom Music Committee is pleased to announce its 14th Annual Young Artists' Concert, to be held on Sunday afternoon, May 23 at 1:30 p.m. Each year we feature our talented Temple youth who are currently studying a musical instrument or voice or dance in a recital setting. If you are interested in performing, please prepare the piece you would like to perform for an audition/ rehearsal on Sunday, May 1 at 7:00p.m. and Sunday, May 16 at 5:30p.m. for a final run-through at the Temple. For those not able to attend these rehearsals, but would like to participate, please contact Cantor Frank directly.

Please consult with your private teachers for suitable recital pieces or call Cantor Frank at the Temple for ideas. Exploring Jewish music is always preferred, but any piece showing off your talents would be wonderful. An accompanist will be available to accompany anyone needing a pianist.

If you are interested in auditioning, please fill out the application and mail it to Temple Adat Shalom. Mark the words "Young Artists' Concert" on the envelope

Please complete this form and mail or bring it to TAS by April 11, 2010
